

Pedro Barbas Homem

PhD in Law from the Faculty of Law of the Universidade de Lisboa. In addition, the new Dean will assume the position of Chief Academic Officer of the Laureate International Universities Group in Portugal, which, along with the Universidade Europeia, also holds IPAM and IADE – Universidade Europeia.

Pedro Barbas Homem is a Full Professor at the Faculty of Law of the Universidade de Lisboa, having previously held the post of Dean (2008-2010) and Vice-Dean of the Universidade de Lisboa (2010-2011). He is also a Coordinator of the Higher Education Committee of the National Council of Education, was a guest Professor at the Faculty of Law of the Universidade de Coimbra and the Faculty of Law of the Universidade de São Paulo, it also was invited to universities in the USA, Brazil, India, Angola and Mozambique. Since 2007, Pedro Barbas Homem has been a member of the Commission for Conciliation and Good Offices of Disputes between UNESCO and States.

Between 2011 and 2016, the new Rector of the Universidade Europeia was Director of the Center for Judicial Studies. Since 1984, he has been a lawyer registered in the Bar Association and in 2016 he was a member of its Legislation Committee.

Specialist in Law, published more than 10 books in the areas of Law History, Law and State Theory and Philosophy, International Relations, History of International Relations, History of Political Ideas and Law of Education. Also wrote several scientific articles and notations, in particular in fields of Drug Law, Legal Methodology and Theory of Law and Education Law.